LA QUINTA
RESIDENT CARD INFORMATION

Residency shall be determined as a person's primary and permanent home. Property ownership alone does not qualify an individual for a Resident Card.

QUALIFYING OPTIONS FOR EACH APPLICANT:

Option I:

1. Current California Driver's License with your physical La Quinta address on it.

Option II:

1. Current California Identification Card with your physical La Quinta address on it;

AND

2. Current (within the last 60 days) utility bill (cable, electric, gas, or water).

Option III:

1. Property Tax Bill (Riverside County Tax Assessor Record) from the current Fiscal Year;

AND

2. Current (within the last 60 days) utility bill (cable, electric, gas, or water);

AND

3. Photo identification matching the name on both the property tax and utility bill.

Resident Cards will not be issued to customers with fractionalized or multiple ownership.

Dependents (up to age 23) may obtain Resident Cards by providing legal documentation proving that person is a resident's dependent.

Cards may be purchased at the Wellness Center, 784590 Avendia La Fonda, CA on Mondays, Wednesday, and Fridays from 10:00 am to 3:00 pm, and during the Holidays and the First Saturday of each month (November – April only) cards can be purchased from 8:00 am to 12:00 pm.
